Proudly Presents

An Evening in Bhutan

Please join the Social Justice Committee of St. Patrick's Parish and The Welcome to America Project for an exotic, educational night featuring tastes of aromatic cuisine and the rich culture of Bhutan. Learn about this beautiful, ancient and troubled land and hear firsthand accounts of the struggles and strength of Bhutanese refugees building new lives here in Phoenix.

Seating is limited; get your ticket today!

Over 1500 Bhutanese refugees have been resettled to Arizona since 2008. Come meet your Phoenix neighbors and find out more about this fascinating culture.
